FUN ON THE 4TH

Looking for something to do on July 4th?

The Madison Folk Music Society is holding a combination potluck supper, music-making and fireworks-watching gathering in James Madison Park starting around 6 p.m. Bring some food to share (main dish, salad veggies, bread dessert etc.), your own eating utensils and beverage, plus instruments and/or voice. Something to keep the bugs away, might not be a bad idea either. From James Madison you can see fireworks from both Warner Park and Shorewood minus the crowds, noise and air pollution. This event is totally unplanned so it should be great fun.

Folk Music Society is continuing to meet this summer every other Wednesday at 8 pm. The July 18th meeting will be at Steve Braden's House, 1910 Madison

Street. (You can get there via Meadowwood bus)

PLAYING THE MARKET

On Saturday mornings now and then friends and members of the Wild Hog will be going down to the Farmer's Market to play some music. It is an informal get together where songs and tunes are played for the people milling around the market. Playing at the Farmer's Market is another way that we inform people about activities of the Wild Hog. But most of all it is a lot of fun for the participants. Not only do we get to share songs, we also get to enjoy the market. Come out and join us some Saturday morning. For dates and time call Pete or Gordy at 241-9088. Pete
