

Summer Concert Series

A collaboration between Wild Hog in the Woods and the Madison Folk Music Society will present two summer concerts in the Overture Center Rotunda. The dates are June 19 and August 14, 11:00am-1:00pm. As fund raising is just getting under way, performers will be announced later.

In addition to this series, Wild Hog will stage their annual Woody Guthrie Night on Friday, July 23. Kim Genich is coordinating this event.

Folk music will have an addition presence when Madison Folk Music Society and Madison Songwriters Guild present three days of music on State Street during the annual Maxwell Street Days in Madison. The stage will be in front of the Overture Center. Event Coordinators are Ron Dennis from Mad Folk and Stephen Lee Rich from Madison Songwriters.

Doug is a multi-instrumentalist on guitar, keyboards, banjo and fiddle and a singer to boot. He composes folk, jazz and theater music.

BACON BITS

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

As this goes to print, I do not have the names of all the volunteers who helped us out in the months of March and April. Rather than miss some of you, let me just thank everyone associated with the Hog. You know who you are.

No matter what level of assistance you provide to our organization, it keeps the motor running, the "lights" on, and the enthusiasm alive. We just could not be the Wild Hog in the Woods without each and every one of you.

The Wild Hog provides a value to the community as an alternative venue for music. You are the soul that keeps us moving forward. We need you and appreciate you. Thank you for all you do.

Thanks also go to all the performers that play at our concerts. You play with gusto and enthusiasm, a full-out performance without knowing whether "Phillup the Pig" will justly reward your efforts. You have provided enjoyment for many years with seldom a complaint about anything. You, too, keep the Wild Hog the valued treasure that it is.

"THANK YOU ALL!

We couldn't have done it without you."
