MARCH EVENTS

AT THE WILD HOG IN THE WOODS COFFEEHOUSE

Friday, Mar. 4
8:00 - 10:30pm

Nancy Rost and Jim Barnard

Nancy Rost has been called "the love child of Tom Lehrer and Tom Waits". Her distinctive songs combine a jazz-influenced piano style with lyrics that are quirky, witty and heartfelt, often all at once. Jim Barnard has been writing songs since 1980, alternating in style between blues and commentary on the foibles of the human condition (mainly his own). His fingerstyle guitar playing and warm stage presence are always a treat. Check out: <http://www.nancyrost.com/>

Monday, Mar. 7
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

The bimonthly gathering of just plain folks who want the Hog to keep up the good work it does. If this sounds like you, please join us at Wil-Mar. The meeting location will be listed on the event postings inside the Wil-Mar Center.

Friday, Mar 11
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Bill and Bobbie Malone

Bill is host of WORT's Wednesday morning folk show, Back to the Country. He has literally* written the book on country music. This husband-wife duo harmonizes on old-time duets and country music the way it was meant to be. The Malones will be joined by Dave Bacholl on bass. (*I do mean literally.)

Friday, Mar. 18
8:00 - 10:30pm

Stephen Lee Rich and Sandy Andina

Recipe:

Mix Sandy Andina (Chicago's resident guitar-and-dulcimer-slinging smart aleck)
With Stephen Lee Rich (Madison's friendly neighborhood yodeling cowboy),
Add harmony and humor, then shake and stir.

Result:

Andina and Rich! It's all part of the "Attitude" Tour, singing songs from their new CD, Two Guitars, A Dulcimer and an Attitude. Folk, Americana, Comedy and more. See <http://www.stephenleerich.com>

Friday, Mar. 25
8:00 - 10:30pm

Tracy Beck

Some of Tracy's influences over the years have been Joni Mitchell, Edie Brickell, Lucinda Williams, Bonnie Rait, Van Morrison, Alison Krauss, Eva Cassidy, Gillian Welch, The Eagles, John Denver, Johnny Cash and Bob Seger. Since none of them are scheduled to play the Hog in the near future, you might want to come down tonight and catch Tracy's show. She writes all her songs and will be joined by Rick Kubly on bass. Annual Hog Membership Renewal

Support a Great Organization!

Membership fees are for a calendar year, so the renewal season is at hand. The expiration year of your membership is printed on the mailing label of this newsletter.

Also, note that membership fees are reduced for members that volunteer at least three times a year. Volunteering is easy. Contact one of the coordinators in the handy Hog contact list on the back page of this newsletter.

Your membership fees, along with event admissions, pay for rent of the facility where we hold the concerts, provide you with a bi-monthly newsletter, and allow us to post all of our activities on a website. Dues also allow us to maintain and upgrade our sound and lighting equipment as needed, and provide the front money for some special concerts and events.

Everything else that is needed to keep this great organization running is volunteered or donated. Simply put, without you, we would not exist. Please renew your membership today!

Gratefully,
Your dedicated Wild Hog Coordinators

BACON BITS

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

A heartfelt THANK YOU to our volunteers who found time over the holiday months to help us out in December and January - Kim Genich, Lisa Johnson, Ruth Ellickson, Warren Gordon, Dixie Gordon, Gil Hillman, Ben Doran, Cynthia Moore, Ron Dennis, Rick Chenowith, David Eagan, and Katherine Ludin.

No matter what level of assistance you provide to our organization, it keeps the motor running, the "lights" on, and the enthusiasm alive. We just could not be the Wild Hog in the Woods without each and every one of you.

The Wild Hog provides a value to the community as an alternative venue for music. You are the soul that keeps us moving forward. We need you and appreciate you. Thank you for all you do.

Thanks also go to all the performers that play at our concerts. You play with gusto and enthusiasm, a full-out performance without knowing whether "Phillup the Pig" will justly reward your efforts. You have provided enjoyment for many years. You, too, keep the Wild Hog the valued treasure that it is.

"THANK YOU ALL!

We couldn't have done it without you."
