Come Hear the Music. Be Part of the Hog.

Live folk music • Fridays at 7:30 p.m.

Wild Hog in the Woods • 504 S. Brearly (Wil-Mar Center) • Madison

Since 1978, Wild Hog in the Woods has been Madison's volunteer-run coffeehouse for live folk music. From Appalachian and Americana to Celtic, Old Time and more, musicians and audiences come together at the Hog for something special: live music in a casual, friendly listening-room environment.

Wild Hog in the Woods is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) membership cooperative. That means the people who enjoy the Hog can also be part of making it happen. Join us, meet new people, support live music, and become part of a Madison tradition!

There are lots of ways to be a Hog. Members help make the music happen—welcoming audiences, setting up the coffeehouse, selling admission and refreshments, baking goodies, running sound, promoting concerts, booking performers, writing and producing the newsletter, helping with the website, and much more.

No experience? No problem. We'll show you how. Some jobs happen on concert nights; others can be done on your own schedule. Whether you want to help occasionally or become more involved in the cooperative, there's a place for you.

Volunteer for a concert and enjoy: Free admission • Free coffee, tea or sparkling water • Free baked treats • Great live music. Members also receive the Wild Hog newsletter and reduced admission to Wild Hog events. Most importantly, your membership and participation help keep live folk music thriving in Madison.
