September Events

At the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse

Tuesday, Sept. 2
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

We welcome all members of the Hog and all other interested persons to discuss hogonomics and other Hog business. Come on down to the Wil-Mar Center and we'll get more acquainted.

Friday, Sept. 5
8:00 - 10:30pm

Karen & Kelly Bleich

Gliding down Hwy. 151 from Randolph, the Bleich's will be bringing a handful of new songs to the show and will have the CD that they recorded at the Hog. If you don't know this fine duo, check out their insane musical energy in a relatively mosquito-free environment. By the way, the name Bleich rhymes with sly, cry and dry.

Friday, Sept. 12
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Tom Kastle

Tom is a singer, songwriter, sailor and teller of tales who has performed throughout the US, Canada, Europe, and New Zealand. He has one foot in the modern singer/songwriter world and the other planted in the traditional maritime realm where he is a shanty and ballad singer and a tall ship captain. Tom recently hosted a short documentary about the Battle of Lake Erie that was nominated for an Emmy Award. When he is ashore, Tom lives in a 19th century log cottage in Madison.

Friday, Sept. 19
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Harmonica Hour

Get ready for an old-time radio show of songs interspersed with stories and jokes. Doug Barrette plays guitar and DeWayne Keyes plays harmonica with him; just as he has for the last 40 years. They do it all – American folk, Chicago blues, old country tunes, Dylan, Beatles, and originals. The music and mirth will have you singing and laughing, respectively.

Saturday, Sept. 20
2:00 - 4:30 pm

Hootenanny!

This semi-structured event, coordinated by Brett Johnson, features an hour of guided song sharing and an hour of sing-a-longs. Bring copies of your favorite songs and your stringed instruments. This is a FREE event, although Phill-up the Pig will be there to accept donations.

Friday, Sept. 26
8:00 - 10:30 pm

John Duggleby

John's songbook ranges from Stephen Foster and George M. Cohan to Beatles and Bruce Springsteen, as well as his own material, while accompanying himself on guitar and who knows what else. John finally realized a decades-long dream with the 2014 release of his first-ever album, Better Late Than Never, which can be heard at <https://soundcloud.com/duggleby>.

October Events

At the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse

Friday, Oct. 3
8:00 - 10:30pm

Dave Fallow with Ryce Anderson

Dave has graced the Hog stage several times over the last several years, playing fine guitar and mandolin, with some vocals as well. Reviews have described him as unassuming with a wry sense of humor and “nobody’s fool”. Ryce Anderson, another accomplished musician, will join Dave on the stage.

Friday, Oct. 10
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Patchouli

Patchouli is back for an encore performance. They are a nationally touring award winning duo of singer-songwriter Julie Patchouli and master guitarist Bruce Hecksel. So far in 2014, they’ve played more than 150 concerts around the U.S. and recorded a new album. Their Terra Guitarra Dragonfly album was nominated Best Instrumental Album Acoustic of the Year by the Zone Music Reporter. You can expect heart-tugging lyrics, sweet vocal harmonies and beautiful guitar.

Friday, Oct. 17
8:00 - 10:30 pm

L’il Rev with Jason Moon

This evening will be a concert in the round, with Milwaukeeans Lil Rev and Jason Moon alternating songs through both sets. Lil Rev’s music is infused with a strong sense of humility for the common man. He excels at harmonica and ukulele, also packs a banjo, guitar and mandolin. Jason Moon, originally from Eagle River, has written and played music since his teen years. He is a veteran of the Iraq War and works to help veterans find their way home. More at www.lilrev.com and www.jasonmoon.org.

In addition to performing, Rambler works to spread knowledge of traditional music by holding workshops and other events.

2015 Hog Membership Renewal

There's no time like the present to renew your Hog membership for 2015. You get discounted admission to coffeehouse events, receive our printed bi-monthly newsletter, and help support a great tradition of presenting live, local music in an inviting way.

Wait, there's one more benefit of renewing now. If you are not currently a member or have let your membership lapse, renewing now will get you a full membership for the remaining months of 2014 as well as for all of 2015. To see if your membership has lapsed, check the address label on the back of this newsletter. Your membership ended in the month and year in the upper right corner of the address label.

"Subscribing Members" pay the regular individual or family dues. "Working Members" pay a lower rate and agree to volunteer at the coffeehouse at least three times a year. Volunteering is easy. Just contact our volunteer coordinator, Lisa Johnson, at 608-442-5753 to get started.

Clip the handy form in this newsletter and bring it along with your dues the next time you come to the coffeehouse. Thank you Volunteers

Another summer has passed and it is time to start up the Hog concerts again. We are always looking for a helping hand. If you have an interest in the wonderful music that emanates from our stage every Friday from September through May, perhaps you would be willing to spend 2-3 hours every other month taking admissions or selling coffee and tea. If so, please contact our volunteer coordinator, Lisa Johnson at 608-442-5753.

Thanks go out to the people who are already steady volunteers and also to those in the handy hog contact list. They book the talent, gather and write a little info for each performer, schedule the volunteers, update and maintain a website, put together a newsletter, fold, label, stamp and mail the newsletters, and much more.

Finally, we are grateful for all the wonderful performers that play at our concerts. You play with gusto and enthusiasm, a full-out performance. You keep the Wild Hog the valued treasure that it is.

"THANK YOU ALL!

We couldn't have done it without you."
