January Events At the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse

Friday, Jan. 6
8:00 - 10:00pm

Songwriters in the Round

Don D. Harvey, Keith Hampton and Bruce Edwin will take turns providing the music. Don lives in LaCrosse and sings and plays guitar and harmonica. Keith, classically trained, plays guitar and sings. He is originally from Wisconsin but has spent a lot of time in Boston. Bruce Edwin of Stoughton is also a guitarist and vocalist. You can find more info on each on the internet.

Monday, Jan. 9
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

We welcome all members of the Hog and all other interested persons to discuss hogonomics and other Hog business. Come on down to the Wil-Mar Center and we'll get more acquainted.

Friday, Jan. 13
8:00 - 10:00pm

50% Folk

Wayne, Mark, Dean and Tanya get together to play songs of the Fifties-Sixties Folk Revival, including folk, bluegrass, gospel, old-time country and Tin Pan Alley. Strong vocals are accompanied by guitar, mandolin, dobro, banjo, autoharp, electric bass and washtub bass. More info about 50% Folk is at www.fiftypercentfolk.com

Friday, Jan. 20
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Skip Jones and Randal Harrison Hoecherl

Skip has a longtime connection to the Hog, last presenting a show about water awareness two years ago. He's from Bowler, Wisconsin in the Wolf River watershed. He sings and plays original and traditional songs on the guitar and Native American flute. Randal Harrison Hoecherl will accompany him on the violin. More info at www.skipjones.net and www.randalharrison.com.

Friday, Jan. 27
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Stephen Lee Rich - Thirtieth Anniversary Celebration

Celebrate Stephen Lee's thirtieth anniversary playing at the Hog with guests Ben Doran, Nancy Rost, and Ingrid Frances Stark. There will be diverse musical styles and even a soft shoe. Will the Old Vaudevillian take a pie in the face this time? There's only one way to find out.

Ramona Johannes Memorial Concert

Planning is underway for Friday, April 14, 2017. Some of Ramona's favorite local musicians will be performing at the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse, including Peter & Lou Berryman, Lisa Johnson and more. Details will be announced in our next newsletter. Mark your calendar now.

Ramona had two passions in life: her sons and a love of folk music. Ramona was a dedicated mom, and loved her sons above all else. She was an active and much-loved volunteer for over 25 years at two local folk music organizations in Madison: Madison Folk Music Society and the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse. She was well-known in the folk music community, and her smile, friendship and willingness to help are greatly missed. See her full obituary at www.wildhoginthewoods.org

February Events

At the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse

Friday, Feb. 3
8:00 - 10:00pm

To Be Announced

Friday, Feb. 10
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Mike Bell and Chris Powers

These gentlemen are two stalwarts of Graminy, the “class grass” ensemble which fuses classical and bluegrass. Mike is a composer and they are both songwriters. Chris hosts “Mudacres Bluegrass Special” on WORT Friday mornings. With both on vocals, Mike on mandolin or banjo and Chris on guitar, listen for some great music. More on them individually at www.graminy.net

Friday, Feb. 17
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Lynn Patrick Smith

Lynn Patrick Smith is a local favorite and one of Madison’s best songwriters. He also writes poetry. His songs are slices of life, funny and poignant with a lyrical twist. His latest poetry collection is “These Little Scenes” from Fireweed Press. He played at the Hog in September with the Madison Songwriters Guild Showcase.

Friday, Feb. 24
8:00 - 10:00pm

To Be Announced

Wild Hog Birthday Celebration

One of those “TBA’s” in February’s line-up is going to be the Hog’s 38th annual birthday celebration. Planning is underway. Food, music and good company. What could be better than that? Keep an eye on the events listing on our website - www.wildhoginthewoods.org for details.

OPEN MIKE

This is available for walk-in's between the two scheduled sets. Sign up at the door when you arrive. Expect to do one to three songs. If more than one person sign's up, you may be asked to limit the number of songs to less than three. Open Mike performers are not paid and do not share the tips left in Phill-up. Open Mike is a great way to try out a new song or to perform for the first time on a stage.

2017 Hog Membership Renewal

There's no time like the present to renew your Hog membership for 2017. You get discounted admission to coffeehouse events, receive our printed bi-monthly newsletter, and help support a great tradition of presenting live, local music in an inviting way.

“Subscribing Members” pay the regular individual or family dues. “Working Members” pay a lower rate and agree to volunteer at the coffeehouse at least three times a year. Volunteering is easy. Just contact our volunteer coordinator, Lisa Johnson, at 608-442-5753 to get started.

Clip the handy form in this newsletter and bring it along with your dues the next time you come to the coffeehouse. If you prefer to renew by mail, make your check payable to Wild Hog in the Woods and send it and the form by US mail to Wild Hog in the Woods, c/o Wil-Mar Center, 953 Jenifer Street, Madison, WI 53703.

Please renew your membership today!

Gratefully,
Your dedicated Wild Hog Coordinators
