WILD HOG MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Monday, May 1 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Wil-Mar Neighborhood Center

This is a special meeting for all Wild Hog members and people interested in becoming members. It is a great opportunity to get involved in discussions about the many positives of the Hog and the many opportunities to continue and grow.

Come meet the coordinators that keep the Hog running and learn more about what the Hog has to offer the music community and music lovers. We welcome all levels of interest and involvement.

MAY EVENTS

Li'l Rev

Milwaukee's Li'l Rev is well-known at the Hog. He sings for the common man. He excels at harmonica and ukulele, but also packs a banjo, guitar and mandolin. He is a songwriter, storyteller, historian, educator and interpreter of American roots music and culture. More at www.lilrev.com

Friday, May 12
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Polkalamity Pleasure Society

This is a group of 10 or 11 friends in the Madison area who like to get together and play music. Their repertoire includes polkas and other lively, toe-tapping dance music. Be sure to bring your dancing shoes! Find them on Facebook.

Friday, May 19
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Kaia Fowler

Kaia is a singer, songwriter, and guitarist who performs in southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois. Her music is a cross-blend of folk, blues, roots and rock. Her lyrics have been praised in Americana Gazette. With her angelic voice and accomplished guitar playing, she shares songs that explore life's longings, struggles and celebrations.
